

CEO Tang, Behave Yourself Chapter 3 To 4

Chapter 3

“Warm, why are you looking at me like that?” Su Dong was slightly angry as he asked Su Rou.

“Sister-in-law, when you and Big Brother were getting married in the first half of the year, I already took out fifty to sixty thousand yuan. Last year, Father said that we would renovate the house, and I also borrowed two hundred thousand yuan from you.”

“You have no money?! How could that be? Warmth, it’s not good enough for you to keep it a secret from us, I heard from dad that you only have twenty or thirty thousand yuan per month for your script. It’s been more than half a year, and normally you don’t have any expenses while living at home, so you should have saved up to a hundred thousand!” Zhou Jing narrowed her eyes at Su Wangyou.

She took a deep breath and raised her head to look at Zhou Jing.

Sister-in-law, I will tell you the truth. Earlier, I invested in studying people and bought a lot of paper gold at the 294 price, but now the price has fallen to 259, which means that all my money is tied up and I can only save it when the price rises again. If you have urgent use for it, I can take out the money.

The moment Su Tong’s warm voice was heard, the entire restaurant became silent. Other than the faint sound of Su Lu eating, there was only the sound of the TV.

“This... This is your own investment failing, how can you let me and your big brother bear the losses? “Besides, it won’t take too much money to change a room. There’s only fifty or sixty thousand yuan in it. You should be able to pay me that much!”

“Sister-in-law, I only have three thousand left, and this month I still have to pay Dad as a mobile phone, home electricity, water, gas pipe fees, and for this month Dad still hasn’t given him a thousand...”

Warmth began to calculate with Zhou Jing, but she didn't believe it. If she bit her teeth and had no money, what else could Zhou Jing do?

Zhou Jing's expression became more and more unsightly as Su Wen's bill continued to be reported. In the end, she placed the chopsticks on the table heavily and said, "Alright, since you don't want to borrow it, then don't. Why are you paying these bills?" Are you mocking me and your brother for not paying a single cent? "

"Sister-in-law, I didn't mean it that way, but I really don't have any money. I heard from Big Bro that your business has been pretty good these few years. "If you guys have enough money, why don't you return some of it to me? I'll wait for the money to be used urgently as well!"

Su Wangyou's personality was not that kind of soft and easy to bully. It was one thing to not care about it, but if she really had to care about it, she was not afraid of offending people.

Hearing that Su Wangsun wanted to borrow money, Zhou Jing's face immediately revealed a wary expression, "Don't listen to your big brother's nonsense. Also, since you've already received the gift money, you'll have to pay it back in the future. What's more, we've already taken the money and don't even have a thousand yuan worth of cash on hand."

"Is that so? "Then, sister-in-law, why are you driving outside every day? I heard that the price of oil has risen again recently. Is one thousand yuan enough to pay for the gas?"

"We've already bought this car. We can't just stop there and rust, but when we're short on money, we really need to save a bit. When we run out of gas, we won't be able to open it for the time being!"

Zhou Jing smiled dryly at him. She no longer dared to say anything about borrowing money. She was afraid that he would turn around and demand payment from them instead.

"Then what about the remodeling of the restaurant? How about I contact the bank loan for Big Bro? Since I have a classmate working at the bank, the procedures should be much simpler."

Borrowing money from the bank isn't a low interest, and now that I can live here alive, I won't change it anymore. We'll talk about it when the child is born, I'll go back and tell my mother that there's no room for a high and low bed, and tell her not to buy it.

“Is that so? That's fine too. Is there anything else I can discuss with sister-in-law?”

“No, you should go back to your room. Didn't you say you were still in a hurry?” We won't waste your time! “

Su Wen smiled and said good night to everyone. When he returned to his room, the smile on his face immediately disappeared without a trace.

Before this, she didn't think much of it when she wasn't paying attention. But now that she was paying attention, she realized that what Huanhuan said was the truth.

Nikki stood behind the door for a long time. Just as she was about to walk in the direction of the desk, she heard someone knocking on the door.

Opening the door, he saw that it was his niece, Su Lu. At this moment, she was holding the iPad that Su Dong had given to her.

“Auntie, Auntie, I want this toy. Can you buy it for me?”

Su Lu pointed at a shopping website page on the screen. There was Piggy Page's toy on it, the price was around 200 RMB.

If it was any other time, then she would have bought the Soothing Sun. But today, she had kept a close eye.

“Little Lu, how did you find this toy?”

Su Lu was not even four years old. Usually she would watch a few videos, but she did not have the ability to find toys on the shopping website.

“Mom helped me find it, but Mom said she didn't have any money, so she told me to look for Aunt.”

“Then why are you here with the iPad? Isn't it Grandpa who kept it in his room all along? “

Hearing this, the smile on Su Lu's face became even sweeter, "Grandfather said he will give it to me, but I need to agree to one of his conditions, and that is to eat well!"

Su Qingrou was shocked. "When did grandpa say he would give it to you?"

A long, long time ago, I can't remember!

When Su Lu saw that Su Qingrou had asked for so long, but still hadn't agreed to buy her a toy, a somewhat unhappy expression appeared on her face, "Aunt, I want this toy ~ ~"

Su Wen squatted down and patted Su Lu's head, "Little Lu be good, aunt doesn't have enough money now. I'll buy it for you when I have enough money in the future, okay?"

"Not good, not good! I want this toy, I want it now!"

Su Lu had always wanted to get whatever she wanted. Even after obtaining this thing and turning her head away from it, she had to buy it first.

Su Qian didn't want to get used to Su Lu's illness. Moreover, she suspected that Su Lu's sudden actions was due to Zhou Jing not believing that she had no money on her hands, so she used Su Lu's purchase as a toy to test herself.

Su Lu couldn't get her hands on the toy, so naturally she started to cry. Su Tong wanted to comfort her, but when Su Dong heard the sound and quickly walked over, after asking what had happened, Su Dong crouched down and hugged Su Lu, consoling her gently with a promise, this toy would definitely be bought.

When Su Lu finally stopped crying, Su Dong then looked at Su Tong, "Su Rou, you just have to buy some for Xiao Lu. Didn't you say you still had three thousand dollars on you? You don't have to pay for the vegetables this month.

"Dad, didn't you say that you don't have any money left?"

Upon being asked by Su Dong, an awkward expression quickly flashed across his face. "I still have some of the living expenses that you gave me before. I'll be able to use them for a month or two."

After saying this, Su Dong then instructed Su Tong to place an order on the internet as soon as possible, and then carried Su Lu back to the living room.

Chapter 4

Seeing Su Dong, who sat on the living room's sofa, watching TV while teasing his granddaughter, Su Wangyou suddenly felt that this father was very unfamiliar.

Didn't Su Dong always say that in his eyes, daughters and sons were the same? He also said that Zhou Jing was an outsider and didn't need to tell her many things about her family, but now he was the one who told her everything. Why was he the one who told her everything?

After she slowly closed the door, she immediately threw herself onto the bed. She rolled up the blanket over her body and covered her face; she just wanted to quickly fall asleep. This way, she would be able to get less annoyed.

When the sun's rays seeped in through the undrawn window curtains the next day, Nikki slowly opened her eyes. Suddenly, an idea popped into her mind.

Since she was so unpopular in this family, why did she stay and be a big spender? Didn't they always say that any regular job with a salary of three or four thousand yuan was more respectable than her code words at home? Then she gave them the dignity they wanted.

Of course, since she had already left, they had no place to find out whether she was working at the company or at home.

After making up his mind, he got off the bed and went into the bathroom. He changed his clothes and walked out of the room.

Su Dong, who was in the living room chasing Su Lu to feed breakfast, couldn't help but reveal a shocked expression when he saw Su Wen wake up so early.

"Waking up so early today?"

Su Rou walked to Su Lu's side and caressed her head. She was in a good mood as she said, "That's right, I want to get used to sleeping early and waking up early."

Su Dong couldn't believe his ears. He couldn't believe he would hear those words from Su Wen's mouth.

Usually, she always said that there were too many people around during the day, and from time to time, there would also be guests. She simply couldn't calm her heart and work, and only when it was late at night, would she be able to work more efficiently.

It could be said that in the few years that he had lived at home, he had been leading a life that reversed night and day. But now, what had happened to her?

"Dad, a friend of mine wants to invite me to be her company's editor. Although my salary isn't too high, I can provide one gold coin for one gold coin for five risks. I've already agreed to it after some consideration. I'll head over to her side today."

"To work at the company? Editor? Leaving today?" Su Dong was momentarily unable to react.

"Yeah, I've been a writer for so many years, and I know a lot of editors. Now that she's hired a major company as an editor, she wants me to go and help her, and she's also in a hurry to hire people. I think her offer is pretty good, so I agreed."

Nikki paused for a moment and then said, "And I thought Sis said she can't stay at home? After I go over there, my room will be made for Little Lu as a children's room."

When Su Dong had heard about the house, he said with a troubled expression: "At first, I really shouldn't have listened to your eldest sister-in-law. Since the house was demolished, there should have been a trap for me to replace it with. If it weren't for your elder sister-in-law wanting me to change it, I wouldn't be unable to live in it now."

Su Qingrou smiled and did not take his words seriously. After a brief moment of hesitation, she decided to say the words in her heart before she left.

Dad, I understand how heavy Big Brother's burden is, but you don't have to listen to what sister-in-law says. Their wholesale distribution alone has over a million worth of goods, plus the 200,000 gold coins they received for the wedding and the 300,000 gold coins Xiao Lu received, this isn't even counting the amount of money they have in their bank, no matter what, you can't be considered poor. If you have money, you can save it for yourself.

"Your sister-in-law is a little stingy, but your brother is good. The three of you are all good kids, and I know that Huanhuan has already gotten married, so there's no need for me to worry about it. Your brother has already gotten married and has a son, so we can consider it as having completed his life.

Su Qingrou looked at Su Dong's worried expression and suddenly couldn't tell which of his words were genuine and which were fake.

"Dad, what if I can't find a good partner to marry in my entire life?"

"Pei pei pei, crow's beak, I will definitely find it. Don't you have to go to work now?" "If this is known by others, it would be easier to listen to it. Later on, I will get someone to take note of it. Let's try to get married next year."

Su Dong couldn't understand her thoughts, so he decided to just leave it at that.

"Dad, if I go out now, I'll probably just be able to go home for the holidays. I might not have the time to come back normally, so take care of yourself."

"Don't worry, I'm fine here. Your elder brother and elder sister-in-law are here!"

Su Dong smiled as he looked at Su Rou, and then said: "That's right, when you come back for the holidays, remember to bring some gifts for Xiao Lu, children love to receive gifts. Also, in a month or two, the new year will come, help Xiao Lu check if you have any nice clothes on her body, and buy some for her."

Nikki slightly frowned, "Dad, Little Lu is elder brother's elder sister-in-law's daughter. I occasionally buy things for her, so it's fine, but everything's for me to buy. Isn't that a bit too much?"

Su Dong did not like hearing these words. He glared at Ye Zichen and was about to get angry.

“Warmth, when did you become so stingy? Little Lu is your only niece, you don’t need to have money on her, where do you need it?” Was he going to invest blindly? You don’t have the brain to invest, so why should you invest in gold? If you didn’t invest that money in the first place, you wouldn’t have been unable to even borrow some money from your big brother; he’s already in his thirties, and he only has three thousand yuan on him. If word got out, you wouldn’t be afraid of losing face. “

“Dad, doesn’t Big Brother still owe me two hundred thousand yuan? This can also be considered as my savings. If you find it unpleasant to speak of it, you might as well ask Big Brother to repay my money sooner! “

Why do you keep returning the money to your mouth? Where did your big brother get the money from? Xiao Lu is going to school next year, and your sister-in-law’s child is also going to be born next year. They use a lot of money, but they don’t have enough to return it to you.
